

Bill C-65 has come into force as of January 1st, 2021!
Workplace Harassment & Violence Prevention Policy...
What Does it Mean for your Organization?

Highlights of Bill C-65: Introduction to Harassment & Workplace Violence

Effective January 1st, 2021, Bill C-65 requires federally regulated employers to engage to review and update existing harassment policies as well as provide training to ALL employees relating to - workplace harassment and violence. Bill C-65 sets out a new procedure when responding to such complaints.

Join Suzanne Desrosiers via online training to learn about the changes Bill C-65 imposes on ALL federally regulated workplaces subject to Part II of the Code, including the federally regulated private sector.

What will you Learn

- Plan for workplace harassment & violence prevention in your workplace
- Assist to amend your policies
- Training measures for ALL employees
- Assist to conduct a risk assessment

Who Should Attend

- Canada Labour Code employers
- Private sector employers governed by the Canada Labour Code
- HR, Supervisors and Upper Management

Self-Paced Webinar

- Work at your own pace
- Learning effectiveness
- 24/7 online access to training course

Training Cost

Highlights of Bill C-65 with Certificate: $99 CAD + HST

CONTACT US TO REQUEST A GROUP RATE!

DISCOUNTED RATES AVAILABLE FOR GROUPS OF
5+ PARTICIPANTS & CORPORATE RATES

REGISTER NOW!

SDLaw e-Learning & Training Centre
www.sdlawtimmins.com
COMPLETION CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE

“Seek legal advice to ensure compliance and minimize potential liability”

 705-268-6492